GOMPERS AND ALLEN IN DEBATE

[INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE]
NEW YORK May 28.—Although prominence in the news columns is given in all of New York's morning newspapers to the debate at Carnegie Hall between Gov. Henry J. Allen of Kansas and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, no paper ventured to give a decision and no editorial comment is made. A consensus of reports indicates that the debaters dealt in generalities rather than in upon any specific issue.

There were no judges and no official decision was given.
The discussion centered chiefly about the right of workers to strike. President Gompers insisting that such a right is inalienable and Gov. Allen advocating the right of the state to pass laws to protect the public from the effects of strikes. President Gompers declared the Kansas industrial relations law infringed upon the privilege of the individual to stop work, while Gov. Allen declared the law simply "takes away from Mr. Gompers the divine right to order him to quit work."

Toward the close the debate became somewhat acrimonious and the crowd frequently interrupted the speakers with partisan demonstrations.

AT THE DE LUXE

Theodore Kosloff, the famous Russian interpretative dancer, is a member of the all-star cast of the new Cecil B. DeMille production, "Why Change Your Wife," which will be shown at the De Luxe theater for six days commencing Sunday, Kosloff, who is well known throughout the world, made his screen debut several years ago in "The Woman God Forgives," also produced by Mr. DeMille. He was very anxious at that time to continue with the cinema, but stage contracts prohibited.

The opportunity to reappear in pictures came a few months ago when Kosloff was planning his Australian tour. Upon receiving the offer from Famous Players-Lasky corporation, the trip was cancelled and Kosloff agreed to play in two DeMille specialties, of which "Why Change Your Wife" is the first. In this story, which was written by William DeMille, Kosloff has the role of a Russian musician, who forms the fourth party in a matrimonial square.

Thomas Meighan and Gloria Swanson figure prominently in the cast of "Why Change Your Wife," though every player is a screen personage of note. Olga Printzlau and Sada Cowan furnished the scenario. It is a Paramount Artcraft picture.

Memorial Day 1920

On the eve of Memorial Day, 1920, the thoughts of many here will be transported across the sea.

Here and there in France there is a grave, claimed by the city of East Chicago as its own. Although distance prevents the laying of wreaths on these scattered mounds, green with another springtime that is removing the scars and hurts of the great war, nevertheless those who sleep there are not forgotten.

Passing years will see our regard for these heroic dead preserved in permanent form for our own inspiration and that of another generation. Until then—the spoken and written word, the unseen tears of mothers, memories that do not forget.

Auburn Beauty-Six Gets Largest Number of Votes in Beauty Contest

At the recent automobile show at Fort Worth the management introduced a unique feature of great interest to those attending—a popular exhibit contest. Only those visitors to the show who paid their way in were entitled to vote, the ballot being handed out at the box office when admission was purchased.

This ballot was really three ballots in one because the voter-visitor was requested to write in first, second and third choice.

On the final night of the show the public's decision was announced.

The first prize was awarded to the Auburn Beauty-Six exhibit consisting of one open model and a sedan. Miss Cecile Bartlett, a volunteer booster for Auburn Beauty-Six, declared "the ladies just loved the Auburn Beauty."

"Of course, a motor car must have reliable power, too," explained Miss Bartlett, "and after examining the powerful motor of the Auburn Beauty and its chassis we felt sure of its strength. And then we liked the fact that the Auburn Beauty Six builders have been successful for twenty years."

"In voting for the first prize for Auburn Beauty-Six, the graceful lines and beauty of finish attracted our instant attention."

"We voted, too, on the basis of ownership pride. Truly, anyone would be proud to drive an Auburn Beauty-Six."

The models shown were stock cars taken off the distributor's floor and placed in the show.
